

SCHALK JOUBERT

BASSISTS

---

Schalk Joubert is a celebrated South African bassist and a multi award-winning composer and producer. He studied at the University of Stellenbosch and had master-classes with bass virtuoso Carlo Mombelli.

Schalk has performed all over the world at elite venues and festivals like Carnegie Hall in New York and Byron Bay Blues Festival in Australia. He has appeared on hundreds of recordings and performed with artists like Hugh Masekela, Crash Test Dummies, David Kramer, Strawbs, Zolani Mahola and many more.

He has composed music for numerous award-winning South African and European films, television programmes and stage productions and he remains very active in the South African music industry.